AIRMEN DROP TONS OF BOMBS BEHIND ENEMY LINES

Committed to a Continuation of Hard Fighting, Germans Are Taking Their Time to Make Attacks.

Artillery of Enemy Active Along All Vital Sectors.

American Artillery Continues to Harass The Enemy and Inflict Heavy Damage.

Italians Continue to Throw Back All Austrian Attacks

Associated Press Dispatch.

Committed as they are to a continuation of heavy fighting on the western front, the Germans apparently are taking their full time before beginning another forward operation on the line from Soissons north to the Belgian coast. In two weeks the enemy has made only one determined attack and this was repulsed by the allied forces southwest of Ypres.

Along the vital sectors of the salient driven by the Germans since March 21 the enemy artillery has been active, but there are no signs of renewed infantry activity in strength north of Kemmel, around Serre on the line between Albert and Arras and on the southern end of the British line across the Somme and on the French sector immediately south, the German big guns are hurling thousands of shells into the allied positions.

Allied airmen are taking advantage of every opportunity to invade enemy territory. Many more tons of bombs have been dropped on important railway sectors and other targets behind the German lines in Flanders and Picardy. In aerial fighting the British have brought down six more enemy machines.

While British naval airmen bomb the submarine bases at Zeebrugge and Ostend army flyers continue the aerial bombardment of Bruges.

West of Montdidier in Picardy and northwest of Toul American artillerymen are harassing the Germans with a heavy fire. Considerable damage is believed to have been caused on both sectors. Lively fighting continues in the Monte Corno region south of Asiago, with the Italians throwing back repeated Austrian efforts to regain the summit of the mountain. Elsewhere on the Italian front the artillery duel goes on with no indications that the enemy is ready to start his heralded attack.

OTTAWA TALE OFFICIALLY REPUDIATED

Misunderstanding of Language in Messages Cause of Announcement.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Ottawa, May 14.—The statement that it had been decided not to use American forces in France until they had become a "complete, powerful, self supporting army" was incorrect, and "due to an error in compilation," according to a statement received from the British government by the Canadian Government and made public today as "official news."

The reference which is now corrected was contained in a summary of operations on the British front made public here Sunday night last as coming from the war committee of the British cabinet.

The statement from the British government, given out today, says that owing to the error in compilation it was made clear that the reference "related to the period when America first joined the war and had no relations to present events whereby the American army is being brigaded with the entente armies."

DEATH CALLS WELL KNOWN PUBLISHER

James Gordon Bennett, Publisher New York Herald, Dies in France.

(Associated Press Cable)

Beaulieu, France, May 14.—James Gordon Bennett, proprietor of the New York Herald, died at 5:30 this morning after having been unconscious for two days. Mr. Bennett's last words before death were in relation to his newspaper interests. Mrs. Bennett was with her husband when he died.

Dispatches from France early this month reported Mr. Bennett so seriously ill that his condition was giving cause for anxiety.

Mr. Bennett was born in New York City, May 10, 1841. When seventy three years old, in 1914, he married in Paris the Baroness de Reuter, widow of George Julius de Reuter, a son of the founder of Reuter's, Limited a British telegraphic news service. The Baroness was then about 60 years old and the mother of two children. She was formerly an American, Maud Potter, daughter of John Potter of Philadelphia.

On the day before his marriage Mr. Bennett was baptized in the Episcopal church.

Several thousand miles away from his main newspaper office, James Gordon Bennett directed in minute detail the affairs of the New York Herald, and maintained for himself one of the most commanding positions in American journalism. For more than a quarter of a century he lived in Paris and worked simultaneously there and in New York. No man before him or since has attempted such long distance editing.

From almost every other angle his position in the newspaper world has been unique. Upon the death of his father, who was founder of the Herald, the younger Bennett, then just past 30 years, inherited the largest newspaper fortune accumulated by any American publisher up to that time. He applied it toward achievements to startle the public and thus redound to the credit of his newspaper. In many instances these achievements became important items in the world's history.

FIRST BIG MILLION TONS COMPLETED

Total of 159 Vessels Have Been Completed and Production Shows Steady Increase.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, May 14.—The first million tons of ships complete and delivered to the United States under the direction of the Shipping Board have been put on the high seas to help defeat Germany.

A total of 159 vessels of 1,108,621 tons were completed up to May 11, according to statistics compiled by experts of the Board.

Since January 1 more than half of the total tonnage, 667,896 tons, has been delivered and the monthly totals show a steady increase.

Most of the ships delivered were requisitioned on the ways or in contract form when the United States entered the war. Virtually all are steel construction. None of the ships of the great wood program has been delivered although 46 have been launched, due to delay in obtaining boilers and other machinery.

The first completed wooden ship built for the government now is undergoing speed trials off the Pacific coast.

RESURFACING WORK ON MARKET STREET ATTRACTS INTEREST

The work of resurfacing the old paved street on Market street, from the west side of Main street to the Court House alley, near the jail, by applying some two inches of asphalt, is attracting a great deal of attention at the present time, and scores of property owners along the remainder of the old paved streets in the main part of the city are watching with deep interest the progress of the work and are being convinced that such method of renewing the up-town streets will be so satisfactory that a continuation of the resurfacing of other parts of the old street will be the result.

As the work progresses there is every indication that it will leave a perfect surface, without sign of the countless depressions which made traveling over the street anything else but a joy ride.

With proper weather a day or two will witness the completion of the street and it will be ready for reopening for traffic, and form a highly desirable connecting link between the remainder of Market street from N. North to Hinde, so that a vast amount of traffic that now passes over Court street between North and Hinde and intermediate streets, will be turned over the new channel of asphalt paving.

Several prominent business men have expressed themselves as highly desirous of having the resurfacing extended to the other streets.

MEMOIR OF WILLIAM A. SANDERS.

Again, all unexpected and unheralded, the Grim Reaper has come into our midst and garnered for the Eternal Harvest, William A. Sanders—a loving husband and father, a genial neighbor and a loyal brother.

Mr. Sanders a son of Austin and Nancy Reid Sanders was born June 30th, 1861 and without any previous sickness or warning departed this life May 9th, 1918, aged 56 years, 10 months and 9 days.

He was one of a family of four children. The father and mother, a brother, Austin E. and two sisters Bertha F. and Mrs. Mary E. Jenkins preceded him to the other world. There were also two half-brothers, Nelson and Rev. Charles Reid. Between them all existed a very strong family tie. Rev. Chas. Reid, of near Cleveland is now the only surviving member of the family.

On December 7, 1882 he was united in marriage to Laura B. Rose. To this union were born seven children. The mother and four of them were waiting to welcome him to the other shore.

On April 27th, 1914, he was again married to Bessie L. Dailey. One baby girl, Kathleen, now one year old, came to bless this home.

During the ministry of the late Rev. J. L. McNair he was converted and became a member of the church which now bears the name of its departed pastor. At the time of his death, Mr. Sanders was a member of the Board of Deacons of this church and had served the church in other branches of its organization.

In the cause of temperance he was an ardent worker and readily supported any movement for the uplifting of morality and the purity of young people. While not having many educational advantages in his youth, Mr. Sanders was studious and eagerly read and conversed on all current topics.

Early in life he chose carpentry for his life work. To this he zealously applied himself and became one of the cities most reliable architects and builders. In all his dealings he was found honest and efficient.

Besides the bereaved widow and children, Austin L. of this city, Mrs. Harley Brown, of Jasper, Frank and Kathleen at home, he leaves many other relatives and a wide circle of business associates throughout Washington and Fayette county where his entire life has been spent.

For a good many years he has been a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of this city and was a firm believer in the teachings of the order.

"To err is human"—and he too had his faults but with them all a readily repentant disposition. He was tender-hearted and forgiving and evidenced this in many ways. He practiced the charity that does not let the "right hand know what the left hand doeth." The Father's Divine judgment we leave his soul knowing that "He remembereth we are dust" and for him we will cherish fond memories.

Announcement is made that the Board of Directors of The Washington Savings Bank and Trust Company has purchased from George Inskeep the rooms now occupied by the bank and the large room occupied by the City Meat Market, with the intention of erecting a modern home for the bank.

While the work of rebuilding is under way The Washington Savings Bank and Trust Company will be located in the bending room, corner of East Court and North streets, lease of the room for that purpose having been arranged.

Just when the work of rebuilding will be started is not announced, but it is understood the work will be taken up in the not distant future.

When the new building is erected, it will be attractively equipped and the accommodations will be much better than possible at the present time.

Ringling Bros. Mammoth Show and Great Spectacle Will Soon Be Close at Hand.

"Ringling Day," the big holiday for which young and old impatiently wait at this season of the year, promises to eclipse all other events on the calendar at Columbus, Friday, May 17.

Exhibitions will be given both afternoon and night. It would seem as though everybody in this locality were planning to attend. Those who do will see many wonders. There will be the great street parade—more than three miles long this year—no end of strange and remarkable wild animals in the gigantic Five-Continent Menagerie, and whole hordes of sensations in the mammoth main tent.

This season the Ringling Brothers are opening their program with a wonderful spectacle entitled "In Days of Old." More than 1,200 actors take part in the great production, which tells the story of the days "when knighthood was in flower." There is a ballet of 300 dancing girls and no end of other striking features. Following the spectacle will come a thousand arctic sensations. There will be seventy riders, headed by May Wirth, who somersaults from the back of one galloping horse to another, Lilly Leitzel, the world's greatest aerial gymnast; Australian woodchoppers felling giant trees; Hillary Long, who leaps the gap on his head, and a world of other startling features. Eighty clowns will furnish fun and more trained animals and trick horses and elephants will appear than ever before.

The circus will be in Dayton, Thursday, May 16.

If Swift & Company Made No Profit

The consumer would pay only ¼ cent a pound less for his dressed beef.

If Swift & Company waived all profit on cattle, and gave it to consumers in the form of lower beef prices, this would reduce the cost to the average consumer less than 25 cents per year for all the beef he eats.

In fact, the packer's profit is so insignificant that if surrendered to the consumer the effect upon retail meat prices would be practically nothing.

It is because of the volume of meat handled that the investor in Swift & Company's business receives a satisfactory return upon his money.

These figures for 1917 are convincing:

The profit of $1.29 per head averages ¼ cent per pound on dressed beef—

Average Receipts:

Per animal for beef - $68.97
Per animal for by-products 24.09
$93.06

Average Disbursements:

Per animal for cattle on hoof - - - - $84.45
Per animal for dressing, selling and freight - 7.32
Net profit per animal - 1.29
$93.06

THEM WIMMEN

The modern girls have the queerest ways; They wear straw hats on winter days They wear low shoes when its raining cats On Muddy days they wear white spats; When its ten below their necks are bare, They say they are roastin' and want fresh air; When its eighty, above they are so sure they'll freeze. And put on sweaters that reach to their knees; On sunny days they are always late. When it rains they are at work at quarter to eight. But it proves the old time saying is true; "You never can tell what a woman will do."

Rev. Arthur P. Cherrington united in marriage, Saturday evening at five thirty o'clock, Miss Winifred S. Gertig, daughter of Mrs. C. W. Gertig, of Mansfield and Mr. Carl E. Clutter, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Clutter, of Gallon, Ohio.

The groom is connected with the Central Union Telephone Co. as special lineman, and is the successor of Mr. Newman DeWitt, who recently moved to Cuyahoga Falls.

Mrs. and Mrs. Clutter went at once to housekeeping on South Fayette street, where they have taken a furnished house.

Washington friends of Mrs. Freda Black Jenkins, widow of the late Dr. Harry Jenkins, known in the world of music as "Freda Starr," will be greatly interested in the following excerpts from an article in "The Music News," a musical journal of Chicago:

Glowing reports reach this office concerning the fine success being achieved by the young American soprano, Freda Starr, who for several months has been singing in the south. At San Antonio, where she has been for several weeks, her rare beautiful voice, excellent training and warm personality have made her a prime favorite. Public and press have been unstinted in their praise of this young artist's talents.

San Antonio, while being given over extensively to things military because of the fact that it is practically surrounded by camps of soldiers, is nevertheless a city of consequence musically. Two symphony orchestras and several thriving musical clubs under the patronage of the city's most influential citizens, foster the highest ideals in music even during war time, and it is this musical fraternity which has received Miss Starr so enthusiastically.

Miss Starr confesses, however, that despite her very flattering reception by the civil populations, it is in camps she get her greatest joy in singing. She delights to sing to the soldiers and never passes an opportunity to do so. Thousands of the soldier boys in auditoriums, Y. M. C. A. buildings, tents and mess halls, have been privileged to hear her and have expressed their approval in rousing manner.

Miss Starr's graciousness is shown in an incident which occurred in one of the camps not long since.

One evening, as she was passing one of the mess halls in company with several Y. M. C. A. secretaries, one of the soldiers eating in the hall saw and recognized her. He immediately passed the word to his comrades, and they made an appeal that she come in and sing for them; and, notwithstanding the fact that she was due for a full evening's program at one of the auditoriums in a very few minutes she delayed long enough to enter the mess hall and sing several little songs, thereby adding to her already large circle of admirers.

Mrs. Jenkins beautiful voice with its appealing sympathy, will be well remembered in this city's musical circles.

An excellent picture of her accompanies the magazine's article.

The Mothers' Circle met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Ralph Penn. As it was the last meeting of the year, an unusual amount of business was transacted and the following officers were elected, Mrs. Clarence Craig, President, Mrs. W. E. Robinson, Vice-President, Mrs. Frank Blessing, Secretary and Mrs. A. L. McCray, Treasurer.

Mrs. Roy T. McClure reported eighty Layettes completed and shipped to Belgium Babies. The Circle was greatly pleased with the complimentary remarks accompanying the receipt from the Lake Division Headquarters.

The Club decided to hold their annual social session in the form of a picnic on Monday afternoon, May 27th at Cherry Hill.

Mrs. Graham Beckel gave a very interesting talk on the Child Welfare Work of the Women's Council of National Defense. A short discussion followed.

A resolution to the effect that the Circle co-operate with the local committee, and later take up some special department of this work as a club was adopted.

A very pleasing program was carried out.

Mrs. W. E. Robinson and Mrs. Frank Blessing played a pretty piano duet. Billy McFadden and Mary Theresa Morris gave cunning recitations.

Mrs. Herbert Chapman read a well prepared paper, and Mrs. John McFadden, closed the program with a charming reading.

Royal Chapter, No. 29, announces that the order's annual memorial services will be held next Sunday afternoon at half past two o'clock at the Masonic Temple.

All Masons, their families and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Those who have witnessed the rehearsals for the patriotic pageant, which will be put on by two hundred grade pupils of the public schools at the High School Auditorium, Wednesday night, forecast the most elaborate and brilliant affair which has ever been given by grade pupils of the local schools.

The pageant features the folk dances of different nations—England, France, Japan, Italy, Russia, Scotland, Ireland, Sweden and America, and the costumes are very beautiful, the ensemble contributing an effect of great brilliancy.

The Indian Overture, which will be put on with the pageant, is most attractive, the melodies taken from the music of different Indian tribes chiefly from the Omaha tribe.

The seat sale has been very large and before tomorrow night it is a safe prophecy that every seat will be taken. This insures a nice sum for the Red Cross, the beneficiary of the pageant.

The Junior Cecilians held their regular meeting at the home of Miss Jessie Sunkle Monday evening.

Miss Aileen Hess opened the program with MacDowell's "To a Water Lily" showing unusual finish and good style in her work.

Miss Helen Durant, a young Junior Cecilian made her initial appearance on the program playing "Murmuring Spring" a composition demanding skill in running passages and good finger work which Miss Durant accomplished very creditably.

To the delight of the Juniors Miss Jessie Sunkle was the vocal soloist of the evening. Miss Sunkle sings with perfect ease and freedom and never fails to charm her hearers.

Meyer-Helmund's "Dialogue" was played by Miss Margaret Christopher. Miss Christopher does admirable work, especially in interpretation.

At the close of the program plans for the surgical dressing unit were fully discussed. All the girls have volunteered to devote one morning a week during the summer's vacation to this work.

Miss Light, supervisor, extended an invitation to the Junior Cecilians to meet at her home next Tuesday evening for the concluding program of the year. Special numbers have been arranged for the evening which promise to form a fitting close to an enjoyable and profitable club year.

WORKERS MANIFEST GREAT INTEREST IN PLANS OF CAMPAIGN

Two meetings of the war chest workers were held, Monday night, one at the court house which was attended by 130 workers from the city and Union township, and the other at Jeffersonville, attended by 35 workers from Jeffersonville and Jefferson township.

At the meeting of the workers of the city and Union township, Chairman M. S. Daugherty gave instructions for individual work in the campaign, and Hon. C. A. Reid also addressed them on the matter of the War Chest campaign and the importance of making it an overwhelming success.

Following the session of the workers where deep interest was manifested by everyone, a meeting of the Reserve Committee was held.

At Jeffersonville Hon. J. D. Post, A. W. Duff, Ed Eite and Walter W. Hamilton were in attendance from this city, and all questions arising were discussed and explained so that every worker thoroughly understands just what is expected and showed a willingness to take hold and do the work assigned.

As the day for the opening of the drive approaches, the enthusiasm and determination of the workers is increasing, and the public is showing every indication of doing the individual's part in giving liberally for the great cause to be presented by the War Chest workers.

Momentous Happenings

The announcement from Ottawa Sunday night that there had been a change in plans for American armies in Europe plunged the nation into a fever of excitement and enthusiasm. People were a little mystified at so sudden and radical a change in military plans, as the statement indicated had occurred, but they were willing and anxious to accept it at face value because of the tremendous confidence is created.

But all that aside. The feeling among the people of the allied nations, doubtless a reflection from the soldiers and the commanders in the field, is very much more optimistic and cheerful than it was only a few days ago.

That the Germans have been brought to a dead halt, after weeks of costly endeavor, is an established fact. The great offensives, from first to last, have been colossal failures. Nothing of advantage, in a military sense, has been gained and the losses of the Germans have been appalling.

The allies—especially the British and French—have, very markedly, strengthened their positions during the last two weeks and confidently await the next attack of the enemy.

There is every reason to believe that great events—decisive events probably—are shaping themselves, and even though the announcement from Ottawa was decidedly premature, if not wholly without foundation, and that the allies are about to announce a change in plans—a change warranted by the collapse of the German offensive.

One of the most gratifying, as well as one of the most important developments is the mastery of the submarine boats.

Allied ship construction is now exceeding submarine boat destruction and seemingly authentic rumor comes from Germany that a new type U-boat is to be built.

The blocking of Ostend and Zeebrugge harbors and the work of the destroyers has proven more effective evidently than people generally supposed.

The Way to Stop It

The emphatic manner in which Professor Heron, noted American educator, sojourning in a little hamlet on the Swiss-German frontier, disposed of insidious and deceitful "peace" proposals made to him by a German educator, should serve as a pattern for all Americans everywhere, no matter how approached by the agents of the Kaiser and all German subjects are agents of the Prussian madman and his war lords.

They have no independence of thought or action and, working for and under the absolute domination of the junkers, no honesty in purpose and no sincere intent.

There can be no peace until Prussian militarism is dead—every American knows that and every American knows that German peace talk is just a feint to gain time to carry out some devilish purpose. Why not say so in so many words as Professor Heron did. America and her allies are too busy in the work of crushing Prussianism to listen to any "rigmarole" of the Kaiser's agents.

Professor Heron's statement is one of the most conclusive evidences that America is into the grim work of war in deadly earnest and is not to be turned aside by any bungling German subterfuge.

We are in this war to fight until Prussianism is destroyed forever and if necessary, the Prussian state too. That's what the American educator told the Kaiser's agent and that's the correct American answer.

An Old-fashioned Rain

While the heavy rains of Saturday and Sunday prevented a great many folks from even attempting their weekly tour by automobile and made those who braved the elements decidedly uncomfortable and uneasy, they were worth many thousands of dollars to the community.

The wheat, the grass, the oats and all other crops in the ground needed just such a "watering" as the generous downpour furnished. While corn planting and plowing will be delayed several days it will mean gain in the end because of the facility with which the heavy work of breaking up the ground can be done now that the clods have been pulverized and the sod ground softened.

We have had "sprinkles" and "showers," but for months both people and crops have thirsted for a good steady old fashioned rain—one of the kind that comes in quantities, but in a way that permits the parched ground to drink it all in—every drop.

The rains of Saturday and Sunday were just that kind. Very little of the nearly three inches of water that fell during the forty hours of rain ran off the surface. It all went into the ground and after watering the crops thoroughly filled up the underground streams and reservoirs.

It was a good rain.

Poetry For Today

THE SOUL OF A NATION

The little things of which we lately chattered—

The dearth of taxis or the dawn of spring;

Themes we discussed as though they really mattered,

Like rationed meat or raiders on the wing.

How thin it seems today, this vacant prattle,

Drowned by the thunder rolling in the West,

Voice of the great arbitrament of battle

That puts our temper to the final test!

Thither our eyes are turned, our hearts are straining,

Where those we love, whose courage laughs at fear,

Amid the storm of steel around them raining

Go to their death for all we hold most dear.

New-born of this supremest hour of trial,

In quiet confidence shall be our strength

Fixed on a faith that will not take denial

Nor doubt that we have found our soul at length.

O England, staunch of nerve and strong of sinew,

Best when you face the odds and stand at bay!

Now show a watching world what stuff is in you!

Now make your soldiers proud of you today!

MASTERY OF SUBMARINE IS GAINED

Washington, May 14.—Realizing that the allies and the United States have gained the mastery over the present type of submarines, Germany now is said to be planning a new series of big U-boat cruisers.

Announcement of the new German scheme is made by Georges Leygues, the French minister of marine, in an interview received here in an official dispatch from France. The cruiser submarines will be heavily armed and armored and will be designed especially to meet the menace of the torpedo boat destroyers, which have proved so effective.

M. Leygues declared that the allies are ready to meet Germany's new efforts and that they will not rest upon the "fine results obtained" in the past.

Just how effective has been the war against the U-boats is shown by figures on destruction of allied shipping given to the naval committee of the French chamber of deputies by Minister Leygues. They reveal that sinkings of merchantmen have fallen off to the point where new construction is exceeding the destruction, even now, before American yards are in full swing.

The monthly average of destructions this year, as given by M. Leygues, is $15,000, compared with more than 500,000 tons monthly in 1917. On the other hand, the destruction of submarines is exceeding their construction by the enemy. The total of allied shipping destroyed in the first four months of 1918 was placed by Minister Leygues at 1,262,345 tons, and even if the submarines are able to maintain this rate, which officials doubt, the year's total would be something like 3,700,000 tons, or less than the estimated amount of tonnage which the shipping board believes America will produce during the year.

Adding to the American production the output in Great Britain, France and Japan, the allies would gain for the year something like 2,000,000 tons, not counting the 1,000,000 or more tons of chartered Japanese and Norwegian ships and requisitioned Dutch vessels.

While encouraging, officials emphasize the fact that these figures do not furnish the margin of safety that is necessary. There will be no relaxing of building efforts, England's output thus far this year has not come up to expectations and the American yards have not turned out the tonnage anticipated.

HAVE DIVERSION AT STATE CAPITOL

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., May 14.—State house employees are not having a hard time to find entertainment when work is not pressing. There scarcely is a day that some sort of amusement, usually of the propaganda kind, is not in full sway either on the state house lawn or on the wide walks about the building.

For a while a company of signal corps men from Camp Sherman wiggled themselves into favor about the capitol. They camped for a week on the lawn while in Columbus advertising a motion picture, being shown for the benefit of the soldiers at Ohio's training camp. Nearly all patriotic outdoor gatherings are held at the state house, including in the last few weeks many Liberty Loan meetings and entertainments. A circus was a feature one day.

OH! JOY

Paris, May 14.—Three American scouts attacked a German strong point in the Lunerville sector in which enemy snipers had a nest and had been operating with such success that several Americans had been killed by their bullets. The scouts found the point held by an officer and 12 men. The party attacked the Germans, killing the officer and four men. The officer's papers, which were captured, included a German code and other documents from which important information was secured. The scouts retired when German reinforcements appeared. Upon the return of the scouts 25 Americans crossed the German positions and resumed the fight.

GREAT EXPLOSIVE PLANT IN ENGLAND

(Associated Press Correspondence)
Birmingham, England, April 25. — When the call came in the early days of the war for a greater supply of high explosive the government turned to the chemical manufacturers of the country to help them out of their difficulty. In the Midlands not far from Birmingham they found a firm which was engaged in the manufacture of chemicals on a fairly large scale. To this firm was given a contract to erect and operate a factory for the production of T. N. T. and from this factory today the British army receives a large part of its supply of the necessary high explosive.

A day spent here shows what the young scientist is doing for his country, for in this factory at least all the experts are young men, many of whom before the war were dealing with the simple things of life never dreaming that they were destined to invent and produce a material which was to make a shambles of every battlefield in Europe and Asia.

GRAND OLD MAN NEARS 100 MARK

(Associated Press Correspondence)
Rome, May 1.—Italy's most famous old man, Giuseppe Greppi, count and senator, has just celebrated his ninety-ninth year. "Eat well and you will live well and long—that's my secret," he said. In his younger years Count Greppi was a cavalry officer and later entered the diplomatic service travelling in European and Oriental countries. He lived for many years in Russia where he was Italian ambassador.

GERMAN AGGRESSIONS IN THE EAST

The shaded portion of the map indicates the "People's Republic of the Ukraine," where the Germans have suddenly thrown off their mask, jailed the "Minister of War" and proclaimed martial law in the capital, Kiev. The Germans have reported the capture of Sebastopol in the Crimea. To the north of the Ukraine Poland, Lithuania, Estuania and Livonia lie under the German heel.

WOMAN TELLS OF BENEFITS TANLAC GAVE

Describes How Tonic Improved Her Health and Says She is Feeling Fine Again Now.

"I got so run down and my health got so poor before I took Tanlac that I looked thin and wasn't fit for work or anything else," said Mrs. R. F. Percival, 1323 Walnut street, Cincinnati.

"My stomach was all out of order. I always bloated pretty badly after eating and sometimes the bloating got so bad that I felt like I was going to smother. I got so I'd be sick after every meal and I didn't eat much because of it.

My system got rundown all over. I was pretty nervous and just felt so bad that I wasn't fit for work or anything else. I tried a lot of medicines but nothing seemed to help me much.

"Well, one day I read in the papers of the case of a woman who seemed to feel about like I did and Tanlac had helped her. I got a bottle of Tanlac and started taking it.

"I'd only been taking Tanlac one day when I could see a big change in my condition. Then, after that I soon noticed that my food was digesting better. My stomach kept right on improving and it wasn't long until I could eat all I wanted without a bit of trouble afterward.

"I'm feeling fine again now and I can't praise Tanlac enough for what it has done for me."

MISS BARA'S GOWNS ARE GEMS OF ART

"Du Barry" Is of Special Interest to Women as an Eighteenth Century Fashion Show.

The dresses worn by Theda Bara in her new William Fox production, "Du Barry," at the Palace Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, are the most wonderful creations of the kind that have ever been brought together. For each scene a new frock was specially made, and the time and labor that has been put on was stupendous.

In the first place, they were designed by a well known artist and authority on the period of Louis XV. This man was constantly with Miss Bara, consulting upon this phase of her work alone. When the creation had been planned and a painting made of it, it was turned over to Miss Bara's expert on material.

The whole world was looked to for the production of the silks, satins, brocades, and other materials that enter into her wardrobe. A special corps of dressmakers were at work for months upon these dresses, and they were at hand throughout the whole of the making of "Du Barry."

At times Miss Bara and her experts found that a certain frock, beautiful in itself, did not enter into the ensemble, and it had to be discarded and a new one made. In spite of the fact that they were begun months before the actual filming of "Du Barry" took place, several of them were made at the last minute, simply because some inaccuracy became apparent which the eye of any other than an expert could not detect.

MEN WITH FARM EXPERIENCE WANTED

(By Associated Press Dispatch)
Columbus, O., May 14.—Business men living in cities and villages who have had experience, and retired farmers, will be called upon to volunteer their services on the farm to take the place of farm boys who have gone to war.

In announcing the third monthly canvass among farmers for farm hands for the month of June the Employment Bureau of the Ohio Defense Council urges city men, with farm experience, to register with the Employment bureau for farm work.

Farmers are urged to use boys now enrolled in the U. S. Boys' Work Reserve to make up for the farm labor shortage.

"GERMS OF FIERCE WARS IN FUTURE"

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

New York, May 14.—Warnings that the Russo-German peace treaty negotiated at Brest-Litovsk will cause permanent antagonism between Germany and Russia and that it will become the "germ of fierce wars in the future" was given by Dr. Ludwig Haas-Karlruhe, a member of the Reichstag, in a letter to the Berlin Tageblatt, recently.

It would be better for Germany if the Russian border states were not "segregated" he asserted. Owing to the uncertainty of the future of Russia, he declared, Germany should not be now committed to a fixed policy. For that reason, he pointed out, it would be "more than dangerous for the German Emperor to become Duke of Courland or of any Baltic country, since 'once the Emperor was connected with the Baltic future, there would be no turning back."

"The new border states (of Russia) should remain free and we desire to remain free," he concluded.

HOW HUN GAS ATTACKS ARE COMBATED

London, April 15.—(Associated Press Correspondence).—Gas warfare has developed to a very considerable extent since its first use as a surprise weapon by the Germans at the second battle of Ypres. At that time the gas cloud or "wave" was released from great cylinders of liquid gas embedded in the trenches and discharged by pipes leading through the parapet.

This form of attack has now been largely discarded, for it depended for effectiveness on the prevailing wind blowing from the right quarter. It soon became apparent that the gas shell was a far more important weapon than any gas cloud or wave, for its action is independent of the wind and a continuous barrage of gas shells can be kept up so that the whole target area is continuously poisoned.

Though entirely surprised by the first German gas attack, the British and French quickly devised defensive measures and every soldier was supplied with a gas mask. The box respirator which every Allied soldier now carries, is an absolute protection against all forms of gas, provided that it is put on at the first alarm and is not removed until the danger is past.

But it is very difficult to fight hour after hour without removing the respirator. There can be little speech, and a man can neither eat, drink nor smoke. During a gas attack, there must be as little unnecessary moving as possible, for violent movements of the body are likely to displace the mask and let a little of the poisoned air into the lungs. Gas shells are now used largely by both sides, for the bombardment of back areas and lines of communication, for the silencing of hostile batteries, and as a barrage previous to an infantry attack, when their effect is often supplemented by gas wave discharges from trench cylinders. The effect of a gas attack is much worse and lasts much longer in closed spaces such as trenches and dugouts, and is more effective in towns and villages than in the open. There are many kinds of gas in common use. There is a purely suffocating gas, a tear gas, which attacks the eyes; a sneezing gas, intended to provoke an easier assimilation of the poison gas which accompanies it; and lastly, the mustard gas, which is an eye, lung and skin irritant.

Gas shells in most cases contain a mixture, designed to produce a double effect. The shells are fired by guns of all calibre and gas "mines" and "torpedoes" are discharged from trench mortars.

The majority of gas casualties recover quickly, provided they have been only slightly exposed to the fumes before they put their respirators on. The effects of the irritant mustard gas are not usually serious, most cases recovering in two or three days. It is generally stated that the gas attacks of the French and British are more potent even than those of the Germans, while the Allies' respirators are much better than the German because the Germans have not been able to get rubber enough to use it plentifully in these instruments. The German mask is of leather or treated so badly that German gas casualties have been inordinately heavy.

GREAT CROWD WILL SEE AIRPLANES IN THIS CITY SATURDAY

Fleet of Airplanes Driven by Daredevils of the Air Will Perform Aeronautical Gymnastics High Over the City and Land on Howat Land in Western Part of the City.

A mammoth crowd is expected in this city Saturday of this week, when the fleet of airplanes from the Wright Aviation field, Fairfield, will fly to this city and land on the Howat land in the western part of the city, as well as perform a great many daring feats high over the city.

The day will be a county-wide patriotic rally in the interests of the Fayette County War Chest, and an interesting program is being prepared for the afternoon, to be conducted on the court house lawn.

Every person will be given an opportunity to view at close range the several airplanes which will land in the Howat field, and witness the expert work of the daredevils who drive the machines in preparation to matching their skill and their lives against those of the Germans.

By special arrangement with the Fayette County War Work Council, the Commandant of the aviation field is sending the fleet to this city to demonstrate how easily it would be to bombard an open town such as the Germans do, and such as might well be expected in this country should the Germans win the war and bring it to the shores of America.

The flyers who come to this city will not be the poorest of the field, but will represent the pick of the lot—men who take pleasure in doing the genuine death-defying stunts in the air.

It will be a big event, and one which every man, woman and child in Fayette county will want to see. It will be a memorable event in the lives of the children who will be afforded an opportunity to witness the daring work of the aviators.

INSENSATE HUNS FALL IN MASSES

Liverpool, May 14.—(Associated Press).—A Liverpool officer, in a letter from the front, writes of the German mass attack recently.

"I have watched several of these attacks through my field glasses, and have been filled with horror each time. They plunged forward in serried ranks. The majority did not even trouble to fix bayonets. Many had their rifles slung over their shoulders and they advanced apparently with profound indifference over the bodies of their comrades.

"My first thought was that they must be drugged, they advanced with such callousness and utter unconcern. The smile of the locust has often been applied to the German hosts, and it would seem to be well justified, for in all the recent attacks there is the suggestion of the insensate soldier being absolutely indifferent to what happens to himself or his comrades, and obeying only one overmastering force and impulse.

"The whole object of British and French military training is to develop the initiative and intelligence of the individual soldier, and perhaps this explains why in many cases a British or French division has been able to hold up six or seven times its number."

STATE OF SIEGE IN BOHEMIAN CITY

(Associated Press Cable)
London, May 14.—A state of siege has been declared at Smichow, a suburb of Prague, Bohemia, and the troops there have been sent away, an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Amsterdam reports. One hundred and fifty women are said to have been arrested on account of demonstrations. The burgomaster has resigned. The trouble is extending throughout Bohemia.

NOW IN AMERICA

Washington, May 14.—Mme. Leonida Botchkareva, founder of the famous Russian women's "battalion of death," has arrived in the United States from Russia. She is en route to France, where, she said, she expected to meet death on the battlefield. Mme. Botchkareva said since she left Moscow, disguised in a Russian peasant's garb, she had been followed by agents of the Bolsheviks, who sought to carry out instructions, which, she said, had been issued by the Bolsheviks, to kill her on sight. In a far east port Mme. Botchkareva said, she was given sanctuary on an English man-of-war. "I formed the battalion of death," Mme. Botchkareva said, "to avenge the death of my husband and to combat Prussian aggression in Russia. I am on my way to France, where I will enter service with the first contingent that will accept me. I expect to die on the battlefield."

MODEST QUARTERS FOR FORMER CZAR

London, May 14.—The Soviet government according to a dispatch from Petrograd, confirms the report that Nicholas Romanoff, the former emperor, together with the former empress and one of their daughters, was removed to Ekaterinburg from Tobolsk as a result of the discovery of a peasant conspiracy to assist in his escape from captivity. Alexis Romanoff, the former heir apparent, remains at Tobolsk owing to ill health. The former emperor is now confined in a small house with only one or two attendants and no strangers are allowed to approach him. He complains that the guards recently have been rude and meddlesome. M. Sverdloff of the Bolshevik cabinet says that Nicholas must reconcile himself to the fact that he is a prisoner of the soviet. The question of the ultimate fate of the former emperor, the dispatch adds, will soon be brought to a decision.

Atlanta, Ga., May 14.—Full laity rights were granted women of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, at the meeting of the general conference. The measure was passed by an overwhelming vote.

MILLIONAIRE'S WIFE COOKS FOR SOLDIERS

As a waitress and dishwasher in her own cafeteria in Bordeaux, Mrs. Vincent Aster has won the love of every soldier and sailor of the Allied armies and navies who has touched at that port. At one meal Mrs. Aster, with the help of Mrs. Ethel Runsey, served and waited upon 1,600 men and later helped wash the dishes. This information was brought by Mrs. E. Britton, of Cleveland, Ohio, who recently arrived after a visit to the Astor Canteen at Bordeaux.

WOMAN TRAPPER SHOWS PATRIOTISM

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Clearfield, Pa., May 14.—Mrs. Charles F. Sloppy lives in the heart of the Alleghenies, and spends the lonely days of winter reading the newspapers and trapping the fur-bearing animals which may still be found in the fastnesses of the forest.

She has been deeply interested in the progress of the war, as are all the mountain people of Central Pennsylvania, and when the news of the third Liberty Loan reached her humble home she decided to lend to the government such money as she had accumulated from her winter's work.

So one morning she walked 15 miles into Clearfield, and entering a bank asked for eleven $100 Liberty Bonds. These, she explained as the receipts was being made out, each represented 20 skunk skins. She expressed her sincere regret that she did not have the "hide of the Kaiser" to sell with those of the other skunks.

Mrs. Sloppy has 60 traps scattered through the mountains and she is usually rewarded with pelts enough to make her daily round of the traps well worthwhile. But her captives are not always skunks. Occasionally she gets a mink for which the traders cheerfully pay her $13, and frequently a weasel which is almost as valuable.

Mr. Sloppy is a ginseng farmer and he too has been able to buy Liberty bonds, to the value of $1,000. But he earned every cent of it from his last season's "digging."

AMERICAN PRISONERS ARE CARED FOR

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Cleveland, O., May 14.—Captured American soldiers, arriving in German prison camps, will find American Red Cross emergency food parcels awaiting them, if arrangements already in operation are carried out. This advice has just been received at Lake Division headquarters here. There are approximately 200 main prison camps in Germany and some 10,000 prison groups, counting the small detachments of prisoners sent out to do farm labor. The Red Cross plans to supply all these work camps as well as others where American prisoners are held, with the regulation food parcels.

A TURNING MOVE MAY BE TRIED

London, May 14.—The Germans are moving up men and materials for a new drive. Field Marshal Haig's report makes special note of activity by the German artillery north of Serre. This little town is situated behind the Teutonic lines north of Albert and marks the apex of a triangle, the base of which is the line between Hebuterne and Bucquoy.

For several weeks military experts have been watching developments in this particular region because it is the logical point from which the Germans may be expected to launch a great turning movement against the Arras sector. During the early days of April, when the allies made a final stand on the line which they at present hold, the Germans centered their fiercest drives on Hebuterne and the wooded hills to the south and southwest. They failed to advance further and later lost ground to the allies at this point. The country to the west of Hebuterne is quite hilly, with many steep ridges, which afford admirable defensive positions. To the north and northwest, however, the country is moderately level, with long, undulating ridges, which might be stormed readily by heavy masses of troops.

Field Marshal Haig mentions, too, considerable artillery fire to the north of Kemmel, but this has been a region where the cannon of both sides have been roaring for weeks. The southern portion of the British front has also been under heavy fire from the enemy guns, and this may indicate that the Germans are getting ready for a new effort to reach Amiens.

Since the Italians captured Mont Cornu, Saturday morning, the Austrians have tried in vain to regain this commanding peak south of Asiago, but have been met by stern resistance.

In Mesopotamia, the British forces have progressed further up the Tigris and having captured Kirkut, pursued the Turks for 20 miles to the northward. The British now are 60 miles east of the important city of Mosul, the site of the ancient city of Nineveh, and the crossing of numerous caravan routes.

ANOTHER MEMBER OF COMPANY M IS SLIGHTLY WOUNDED

Private Kirby McCarty, son of Mrs. Oscar Bowens, of Rawlins street, this city, has been slightly wounded in action in France, according to a message received by Mrs. Bowens.

Private McCarty is a member of M Company, and was with the company on the Mexican border one year ago last winter.

There is no truth in the report circulated about the city that word of Private McCarty's death had been received, the report growing out of the message received by Mrs. Bowens late Monday evening.

RESERVE SUPPLY OF CORN AVAILABLE

Fayette county farmers who have not obtained sufficient seed corn still have one more opportunity to get a supply if they act promptly.

The government has a reserve supply of some 40 carloads of Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland corn at Toledo, Ohio, and Fayette county farmers who desire corn to plant may place orders with the Fayette Grain Company at $5.15 per bushel, free on board the train at Toledo.

Prompt attention will be given orders of one or more bushels of the corn.

RED CROSS ACTIVITIES

The second meeting of the recently formed Red Cross Unit of the Ladies of the G. A. R., was held with Mrs. J. F. Dennis. It is most fitting that this auxiliary of the B. H. #### Makes Another Record.

Another record performance has been accomplished by the Red Cross in France. A tent hospital of 500 beds was prepared and shipped to its destination within twelve hours after it was requested. The request came from the French government. The hospital was needed to take care of patients suffering from fractured limbs, who were being removed from a hospital in eastern France menaced by German air raids.

Eugene Ysaye, stirred by the welcome accorded him by Cincinnati since his arrival to conduct the Symphony Orchestra and May Festival, and impressed with the unusual record of the city in its liberty loan and other drives for war purposes, has agreed to play his Stradivarius for the benefit of the Red Cross at one of the mass meetings, to be arranged during the campaign to raise funds for this strong right arm of the government.

The date or place is not yet fixed, but it will probably be in Music Hall during the week of May 20. Mr. Ysaye leaves for the East on Tuesday of next week, but is returning a few days later.

The violinist, exiled from his beloved Belgium, is doing all that is possible with his wonderful talent to stir the spirit of patriotism in the land of his present adoption.

Wanted—A Shoe Factory

The remote little village of Canicattini Pagni in the interior of Sicily seems a queer place for a shoe factory, especially one belonging to American manufacturers, but there is a factory full of workers just waiting there who would be glad enough if somebody from Massachusetts would turn up and shatter the soft Italian air with a daily factory whistle.

The Sicilians are mostly farmers and mostly poor but since the Germans drove into Italy, refugees from the north, accustomed to work in factories and little adapted to tilling the fields, have poured down into the little Sicilian villages where their presence creates a serious problem.

The American Red Cross, which has extended its co-operation to Italian hospitals and refugee enterprises throughout the whole peninsula and Sicily, has discovered in Canicattini Pagni an American woman, Dr. L. M. Affler, who is struggling with this problem. She opened a little hospital and distributes refugee garments and food. The Red Cross has sent a trained nurse to help her and if some enterprising shoemaker would turn up to give the refugees a chance to earn a living, the problem of Canicattini Pagni would be nearly solved.

OFFICERS' SCHOOL PLANS WITHDRAWN

Chillicothe, O., May 14.—No fourth officers' training school will be held at this cantonment. Final and definite withdrawal of all plans to establish an officers' school here May 25, which had previously been rescinded and then restored, was announced. Officers designated on the instruction staff have been ordered to remain with their present organizations.

With partial choice of hundreds of the most promising selectives in the division already made, the news came as a blow to the men who aspired to a chance to win the coveted commissions. The only reason assigned for the cancellation of all plans was that such a school would be considered part of the division, and should the division move, it would entail needless hardship on the school.

From some quarters came the prediction that, with the probability of the division going overseas before the end of the summer, it would seem likely that provision would be made later on for a school, after the Ohio and western Pennsylvania selectives here have been sent across. Officers pointed out that such an arrangement would be more satisfactory in the end than to leave the men here or to move them with their training half completed.

Selectives from the cantonment who have been named in the quotas allotted to the various colleges and universities eligible to send men to the fourth officers' training school will go to other camps for their training.

WEIR-SUNDAY SUIT FOR $100,000 IS THING OF THE PAST

The $100,000 damage suit, filed by Hugh C. Weir, the author, against Billy Sunday, the evangelist, in which Weir accused the defendant of failing to keep an agreement whereby the plaintiff was to write several books for the noted evangelist, has been settled out of court according to a clipping from a New York paper, which says:

"Terms of settlement out of court of the suit for $100,000 brought by Hugh C. Weir, of New Rochelle, against 'Billy' Sunday are withheld. Little surprised the evangelist doesn't tell the truth and shame the devil."

The suit grew out of the publication of the first book said to have been written by Weir and adopted by Sunday as his own, and which collaboration was uncovered when a woman who Weir had employed filed action against Weir asking for a certain sum for having made it possible for Weir to meet Sunday and arrange the deal for the books.

When the collaboration came to light, the press of the east took the matter up and the publication of the book and arrangement for the other books came to an abrupt end, according to New York reports, and the suit filed by Weir was the outcome.

Just what the final agreement between the plaintiff and defendant has been is not announced.

BACK OF THE HUNS' LINE IN BELGIUM

(Associated Press Correspondence)
Paris, May 14.—A prominent Belgian who has remained in the occupied territory has succeeded in getting a letter through to his son now serving on the Belgian front on the Yser. The writer says that everything in the country that is necessary to feeding it is requisitioned by the Germans and the form in which requisitions are made adds bitterness to the act, as the decree, announcing the seizure reads: "To ensure the feeding of the population, we order . . ."

Some current prices are: Butter, the equivalent of $2.35 a pound; flour, about $1.10 a pound; meat, $1.30 a pound; fats $3.70; sugar $1.10; coal $75 a ton; an egg 20 cents; haricot beans 80 cents a pound; spool of cotton, $1.50; box of matches 4 cents; low shoes $22; and petrol about $10 a gallon.

"Your mother and I have each lost about thirty pounds weight" the letter continues, "and uncle has lost fifty. But that only makes us young and does not bother us otherwise."

BIG RATE BOOST IS NOW PROSPECT

Washington, May 14.—Estimates made by railroad administration officials indicate that an increase of at least 25 per cent in freight and passenger rates will be necessary in 1918 to meet the higher costs of fuel, wages, equipment and other operating expenses, now set at between $600,000,000 and $750,000,000 more than last year.

Recommendation that rates be raised by approximately this percentage has been made by Director General McAdoo by his advisers. He is expected to act within the next six weeks, and to put increases into effect immediately. Shippers will be permitted to appeal to the interstate commerce commission under the railroad act, and final decision will be with President Wilson.

Such an increase as is proposed will be the biggest in the history of American railroads, as the percentage is larger than any ever sought by the railroads under private management and would apply alike to the entire country. Both class and commodity schedules would be affected.

Rate experts of the interstate commerce commission and railroad administration now are at work on new schedules. Industries and commercial interests will be subject to the same degree of rate competition as at present. Passenger fares would be raised 3 cents a mile, from the existing general rate of a little less than 2 1/2 cents.

TESTED RECIPES FOR WAR TIMES

Cottage Cheese Pie

1 cup cottage cheese; 2 1/2 cup sugar; 2 1/2 cup milk; 2 eggs yolks, beaten; 1 tablespoon melted fat; salt; 1/4 teaspoon vanilla.

Mix the ingredients in the order given. Bake the pie in one crust. (Make crust of barley or corn flour). Cool it slightly and cover it with meringue made by adding 2 tablespoon of sugar and 1/2 teaspoon of vanilla to the beaten white of 2 eggs and brown it in a slow oven.

Cottage Cheese Pudding

2 cold cornmeal muffins; 2 eggs; 1 cup milk; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 1/2 cup sugar; 1 cup cottage cheese; 1/4 teaspoon soda; 1/2 teaspoon allspice; 1/4 teaspoon mace; 1/4 teaspoon cloves; 1/2 cup seeded raisins.

Cut the muffins into cubes and place in a greased baking dish. Beat the yolks and whites of the eggs separately. Blend with yolks the milk, salt and sugar, and cheese to which has been added the soda. Add the spice and chopped raisins and lastly fold in the stiffly beaten whites. Pour this mixture over the cubes and bake like a custard in a moderate oven. If desired the white of 1 egg may be beaten separately, sweetened with 1 tablespoon of sugar and spread over the top of the pudding just before removing it from the oven.

LOAFERS FINDING CITY AND COUNTY TOO HOT FOR THEM

Mayor Dahl, Sheriff Jones and Other Authorities Determined the Loafer Shall Go to Work or to the Works, and Many of Them Have Taken the Hint.

The days of the habitual loafer in the city and county apparently are over for sometime to come, and more loafers have read the handwriting on the wall and have gone to work, in the last ten days or two weeks, than ever before during a similar period of time.

Since Mayor Dahl and Sheriff Jones have received definite instructions, they are beginning to set the machinery into motion for apprehension of the habitual loafer, and there has been a general scurry for cover, with the result that men are beginning to find employment in various lines.

However a few of the loafers may still be seen about the streets, and the strong hand of the law, backed by the mailed fist of the government, is about to fall upon them and compel them to work, either back of the bars or outside of them—which ever the fellows choose.

And the orders refer to loafers whether they have one cent or $100.00—every man is expected to get busy and to stay busy if physically able to do so.

Several men have been given their choice of work or "works" and have been glad to choose the former, well knowing that the latter would be the result unless they became active in some line of endeavor which is recognized as legitimate employment in some useful line.

All persons in the city and county, who know of a loafer, are urged to notify Sheriff Jones if outside the city, or Mayor Dahl, if inside the city and to report the presence of tramps and beggars promptly.

Every loafer is realizing or will realize that there is no alternative—it must be work, or "works".

DRAIN ON MANPOWER NOT KEENLY FELT

By Associated Press Dispatch

Chicago, May 14.—The nation's industrial manpower has not suffered serious depletion as a result of the United States' first year in the world war, so far as indicated in recent surveys of the general labor situation conducted by the United States Employment Service and the Illinois Free Employment Bureau. Except in certain skilled trades these bureaus find there is no marked shortage of labor, the chief problem at present being distribution.

The labor turnover so far this year has been greater than in previous years. This is attributed to some extent to unusual opportunities for individual betterment offered by plants working on war contracts.

On an average 100,000 persons are obtaining employment through the Chicago district office of the federal bureau as compared with a total of 495,000 during the last fiscal year. This huge increase is accounted for by the recent reorganization of the bureau for service as the national machinery for the mobilization and distribution of the country's labor. As such it has handled the applications of hundreds of thousands of workers registering with the Public Service Reserve, including more than 260,000 machines for shipbuilding.

PAIR FINED FOR GROSS MISCONDUCT

Blanche Foy and Estel Stookley, both of this city, were before Mayor Dahl, Monday, on a charge of lewd and lascivious conduct, the former drawing $5 and the costs and the latter $10 and the costs.

The arrest of the pair is the result of frequent meetings on the public streets, and misconduct.

Both were warned that if they were again summoned on the charge that they would be given the limit, with every endeavor to let them spend some time in the workhouse.
